

DAVID HORNUNG
97 Summit Road
Elizabeth, NJ 07208
(908) 353-3075

EDUCATION:

Yeshiva University, B.A., 1972. Major: Economics
Bernard M. Baruch College, CUNY, M.B.A., 1975.
Major: Accounting
New York University Graduate School of Business, 1975-1978; completed all courses leading to Ph.D.
Passed all four parts to the CPA exam, 1977.

HONORS AND SCHOLARSHIPS:

National Economics Honor Society, 1970-1972.
Dean's Honor List, Yeshiva University, 1970-1972
Research Assistant - Bernard M. Baruch College, 1972-1973
Research Fellow, Ross Institute of Accounting Research,
NYU Graduate School of Business, 1975 - 1977
Professor of the Year, Yeshiva University, Sy Syms School of Business, 1991.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

Queens College of The City University of New York,
Lecturer, Department of Accounting and Information Systems,
1976 - present
Yeshiva University, Adjunct Assistant Professor, Sy Syms
School of Business, 1987 - present
Touro College, Adjunct Assistant Professor, 1980-1982 and 1996 - present
Person/Wolinsky CPA Review, lead instructor in financial cost, and not-for-profit accounting, 1980 - present.

SERVICE TO QUEENS COLLEGE:

Assistant Chairperson, 1980 - present
Member, Department Personnel and Budget Committee
Advisor, Accounting Honors Society
Faculty Advisor to undergraduate accounting majors
Member, Academic Senate
Member, Curriculum Committee.

PUBLICATIONS:

Financial Accounting and Reporting: Explanatory Answers to CPA Examination Objective Questions, Person/Wolinsky CPA
Review, 1993-1995
Accounting and Reporting: Explanatory Answers to CPA
Examination Objective Questions, Person/Wolinsky
CPA Review, 1993-1996.

PRESENTATIONS AND PROFESSIONAL MEETINGS:

Lectured on variety of topics for Accountants
Continuing Education (offers courses for CPE credit), 1993 - present.